

Fortune Teller.....

.....is a joint production of the Aviation Preservation Society of Scotland and the Museum of Flight. Opinions expressed are not necessarily those of the Editor, or the Society, or the Museum.

-----

Comments, ideas, draft articles for publication, etc are welcome, and should be sent to the Editor at :

Museum of Flight,
East Fortune Airfield,
North Berwick,
East Lothian, EH39 5LF.

-----

APSS Membership enquiries should be made to the Membership Secretary at the same address.

-----

The Museum of Flight has a web site, www.nms.ac.uk/flight with much information about the Museum and its collection, together with some outstanding flying photographs of aircraft in the vicinity of East Fortune. The major Spitfire restoration project which the Museum is undertaking for the City of Glasgow has a separate site:
www.visionon.com/spitfire

Contents:	page
Chairman's Chat John Guy	2
De Havilland's DH106 Comet Tony Niemczyk	3
Some Talk of Aero Engines Dr Gordon Watson	7
The Museum of Flight's Photographic Catalogue Christine Skinner	11
Station Stories: No. 2 Radio School, RAF Yatesbury Ian Beattie	15
2nd Tactical Air Force Service Units John Armstrong	16
"Judy" and "Emily" in Tokyo Grant Newman	17